

Become a data-driven decision maker.

Earn a graduate accounting degree from Gies.

An advanced degree in accounting delivers the skills you need to gain a competitive edge in the job market. And when you earn that degree from one of the top-ranked accounting programs in the country, you'll be prepared for success.

Gies College of Business offers two residential accounting graduate programs that are tailored to meet the needs of the individual student. Find out which program is right for you.

#1

Accounting faculty in the country

BYU ACCOUNTING FACULTY RESEARCH RANKINGS

#2

Graduate accounting program in the country

US NEWS & WORLD REPORT

| Degree | Master of Accounting Science (MAS) | Master of Science in Accountancy (MSA) |
|-----------------------------------|---|---|
| Admission requirements | A bachelor degree in accounting from a U.S. college or university, a 3.0 GPA, and submission of GMAT scores, which may be waived during COVID | A bachelor degree in any discipline (with prerequisites in financial accounting, finance, statistics, business management, and economics) and 3.0 GPA Submission of GMAT/GRE scores and TOEFL/IELTS scores by international students; GMAT/GRE scores are waived for students completing four-year degrees in the U.S. and for international students with significant work experience |
| Program start and duration | Begins in the fall or spring and is completed in 2 semesters | June through May—12 months, 3 semesters |
| Curriculum | Choose Financial Reporting & Assurance or Taxation as a primary focus and then pursue electives in a chosen concentration: Data Analytics in Accounting, Finance, Corporate Governance & International Business, Supply Chain Management, or Information Technology & Control; an optional CPA preparation course is also offered; 32 credit hours required | Core courses in accounting, audit, tax, and data analytics, with an optional CPA review course; each student receives a customized study plan fitting their unique academic background; 32 credit hours required |
| Tuition | In-state students: $25,176 Out-of-state or international students: $39,100 | Domestic students: $39,100 International students: $48,945 |
| Scholarships | 50% of admitted students receive an assistantship or scholarship | Available for qualified students |

Contact MAS:

217-333-5030
accy-mas@illinois.edu
GiesBusiness.illinois.edu/mas

Contact MSA:

217-244-9201
ms-accy@business.illinois.edu
GiesBusiness.illinois.edu/msa

Gies College of Business

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS URBANA-CHAMPAIGN